

SPANISH

Imagine yourself traveling the world and communicating with people who speak another language. With an education in the Spanish language and culture, you can unlock the door to hundreds of opportunities. Not only will you be able to visit a Spanish-speaking country and understand the culture and what people are saying, but you'll also become well prepared to work with Spanish speakers right here in the United States. As America becomes more diverse, careers such as education, business, government, health, counseling, and law enforcement are in high demand of bilingual communicators.
